They will be responsible for Security Forces (SF) requirements research, nuclear security, force protection, SF operations in CONUS and OCONUS, system and equipment initiatives including commercial off-the-shelf (COTS) and government off-the-shelf systems (GOTS), future technology development areas in the fields of biometrics and robotics and base infrastructure

LEOSA INFORMATION

RECENT ARMY CHANGES

6 YEAR RULE: DCS received guidance from OPMG that the "6 Year Requirement" for 926B Active applicants has officially been lifted!

"The 6 year requirement is no longer relevant. 926B applicants are authorized as long as they have proper documentation that they HAVE GRADUATED from the school house (MP School or acceptable formal LE Training School) and currently hold an MP MOS. This is IN ADDITION TO THE PRE-EXISTING REQUIREMENTS (one of which is the Commanders Letter, which means they must be actively serving in, and assigned to a unit), and is only applicable to 926B applicants."

MEDICAL LETTER: DCS also received guidance from OPMG that the "Medical Letter Requirement" for Retired/Separated applicants who separated due to a service connected disability has officially been lifted

TRAINING CERTIFICATE: DCS is no longer checking Army Training dates through Army Training Requirements and Resources System (ATTRS).

Now Army Applicants must include with their applications the following:

For 926B, Active applicants: "Copy of their USAMPS certificate to validate the completion of authorized/accredited MP/LE training. This can consist of any academy that the U.S. recognized as valid at the beginning of their Law Enforcement career. For civilian officers, Federal Law Enforcement Training Course (FLETC) or other Army recognized formal training school (i.e. civilian Academy) is acceptable.

For 926C, Retired/Separated applicants: "DD-214 (member 4 copy) indicating the USAMPS training date annotated in the education block, NGB 22, last SF-50 or other service documentation showing performance as a Military Police or DA Civilian Police member. For civilian officers, FLETC or other Army recognized formal training school (i.e. civilian Academy) is acceptable. If there is no school listed in the education block, applicants must submit a copy of their USAMPS certificate to validate the completion of authorized/accredited MP/LE training. This can consist of any academy that the U.S. recognized as valid at the beginning of their Law Enforcement career.

Both: "If the applicant does not have a copy of the graduation certificate, they must provide a personnel or training document, which includes an annotated training date (obtained via iPERMS, OMPF, SRB (ERB), etc.)."

Story by Petty Officer 3rd Class Trey Hutcheson

USS GEORGE WASHINGTON (CVN 73)

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. - (July 9, 2019) – Whether preventing crime or carrying out anti-terrorism measures, the Sailors responsible for security and law enforcement are trained to deal with any situation. These Sailors are called master-at-arms, and they are the military police for the Navy.

Master-at-arms assigned to the Nimitz-class aircraft carrier USS George Washington (CVN 73) are in a unique situation while the ship undergoes refueling complex overhaul (RCOH) at Newport News Shipyard.

Master-at-arms serve the Navy in a variety of roles all over the world. They can work on shore bases in the United States and overseas, aboard ships, or as part of a maritime security squadron. George Washington's master-at-arms have a mission to accomplish in all phases of the ship's lifecycle, whether underway, in port, or in RCOH.

Combined MP Senior Leader Forum Forges Path for Future of Regiment

By: MPRAonline.org

From August 20-22, 2019, the Military Police Corps Regiment hosted a combined Senior Leader Forum at Fort Leonard Wood. This event marked the first time both the Office of the Provost Marshal General (OPMG) and the United States Army Military Police School (USAMPS) hosted a combined forum of this type. In years past both the OPMG and USAMPS hosted separate senior leader forums in Washington, D.C. and Fort Leonard Wood respectively.

This year's combined forum brought nearly 100 of the Army's most senior MP leaders from across the world to discuss current operations and the future of the Military Police Corps Regiment. Also, during this Senior Leader Forum, the Military Police Regimental Association (MPRA) hosted its annual Technological and Industry Exposition.

The MPRA Expo attracted 80 industry representatives from 11 different states, as well as Canada and the United Kingdom. Exhibitors had the opportunity to share the latest in defense industry technologies and career and educational outreach with hundreds of Military Police professionals stationed at FLW, undergoing training at FLW, or attending the combined Senior Leader Forum.
